

Duke of Northumberland to Col.
4. May 1810
The Marquis

41352 Bagenough 4th May 1810.

My Dear Colonel

As I hope to be in Town on Thursday or Friday next, I shall only trouble you at present, with acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 28th, & begging of you to present my Dutiful Thanks to His Royal Highness, for the Communication you sent me. The Plot, rather than Plan, is inferous, & will be set, & defeated by H. K. H.
in the next proper manner.

All here write with me in Compliments to you, & h^{os} have heard; both of whom we hope to find in good health on our arrival in London.
Adieu, My Dear Colonel, & be assured I ever am

I leave you my remaining Yours's most faithfully
Several Friends at Plymouth, Northumberland.
The Appointment of a Justice has given great Displeasure.
