Sheil to Col McMahon

Wednesday Morning 23 May 1810.

I earnestly entreat my dear Sir that you will accept my heart felt & most grateful thanks for your goodness - It is a poor but a most sincere offering, & if you will still further enhance all the kindness you have already shown me you will impress upon the mind of that illustrious & exalted character under whose wing I am now so happy as to be sheltered, how much I feel honored by that circumstance.
I do my dear Sir, Pray do me the justice to believe that as long as life lasts I shall feel myself your most grateful & most devoted servant - Chas Sheil
