

H. W. Adams to Col. Metcalf

41366 -7

Ely - Bedford
June 14. 1810

My Good Friend

I troubled you once before to deposit a statement resp<sup>g</sup> my share in a transaction intending to be done - and the confidence to that believe I have in your friendship & my unbounded confidence in you I now trouble you with the enclosed to put in the same plan with my paper on Count's Loan -

I shall go from hence to Oakley - (Lord Tavistock's) - tomorrow - and to Mr. Talbot on Sunday where I shall be

Wm. Adams to Col. Metcham be till Thursday - and I shall remain there longer or not according to the calls upon my time in London - In case His Royal Highness has any commands for me pray let them be advised of my readiness to come to Town on a moment's notice -

When you can ascertain the net & distribution of the money to be left to your application & mine. I shall be

41367 be glad to know it - As I do not foresee any thing likely to require any particular act on my part but that -

Yours truly
Thos. Metcham
William Adams

Wm. Adams to Col. Metcham

be till Thursday - and I shall remain there longer or not according to the calls upon my time in London - In case His Royal Highness has any commands for me pray let Him be assured of my readiness to come to Town on a moment's notice -

When you can ascertain the net & distribution of the money to be left to your application & mine. I shall be

41367

be glad to know it - As I do not foresee any thing likely to require any particular act on my part but that -

Yours truly
Thos. Metcham
William Adams

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto the main document. The text is too light to transcribe accurately.]