

R. Ryder to Col. Mackenzie

41665-6

Great George Street
Feb 9 10 - 1811

Mr Ryder has the Honor to acknowledge the Receipt of Col.
Mackenzie's Note, and to inform him that he was aware that Mr Perceval had humbly submitted to His Royal Highness's Consideration the Draft of the Speech intended for Tuesday but that as it has been the invariable Custom as he believes, to summon what is called the Great Cabinet for the purpose of hearing the Speech read

R.

the day before the Meeting of Parliament he is still under the necessity of requesting the favor of Coll. Memmons receiving His Royal Highness's Commands as to the hour His Royal Highness may be graciously pleased to appoint for that purpose.

Mr Pyder believes that His Royal Highness did mention one o'clock, and is sure that His Royal Highness directed him to appoint the Sheriff at that hour to attend at Carleton House: but as Mr Pyder was very much indisposed at the time he had the Honor of an

R. Ryder to Col. Tuckahoe

41666

Audience, he is anxious to avoid the possibility of his committing a mistake, which should expose His Royal Highness to any inconvenience.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper]

July 10. 1841.
Mr. Rogers