From Mr Percival

to HRH

Genl. Baring of the House

41673

13 Feb 1811

Mr Percival presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness and acquaints your Royal Highness that the report of the address to your Royal Highness was agreed to by the House of Commons this Evening - It occasioned some little debate

Mr Hutchison, Sir Thos. Fustoe, Mr Whitbread Mr Percival Mr John Newport and Mr Denbury spoke; ~~there~~ was rather more of temper & asperity shown than on the former evening, but they went to the great length - Mr Percival has His Royal Highness
The Duke Regent.

The honor to transmit a copy of the address, and a draft of a prepared answer to it; which, if your Royal Highness should be graciously pleased to approve, Mr. Deane will take care to have copied, and furnished to your Royal Highness by the time when your Royal Highness shall be pleased to receive the address →
