

Lord Amburst

May 14. 1701

4201

Sir

I am truly sensible of your Majesty's great and condescending goodness to me, by the honour of your Majesty's Note.

Your Majesty has lost a

a good officer, I feel too much on the loss to presume to trouble your Majesty on it, but most humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty of my acknowledgments and devoted Duty.

Near Whitehall
14th May 1701.

Amherst