I was much pleas'd at finding by the note that was this morning on my table from Lord North that Mr. Bute's motion for papers relative to the captured Property at St. Eustatius had been rejected by so large a Majority.

On returning home I have received his note recommending Mr. Conway to succeed Sr. Gourn in the Living of Randlesham in Suffolk, which is within distance of that of Snettisham which he already holds. I authorize his notifying that a warrant be prepar'd for that appointment.
