

Lord Pembroke,

May 16. 1701

4210

I humbly beg leave to know, if it is your Majesty's pleasure, I should notify Major General, Lord Robt, as Colonel of the 32<sup>d</sup>, he is senior to Mr General Smith and is on the Irish Staff: having received a Note from Lord North in favour of Colonel Roberts, and a Letter from Mr General Smith, I think it proper to lay them before your Majesty, with Copies of my Answers.
Should it be your Majesty's gracious pleasure to think of, proper Officers, for filling the Place of Adjutant General, I most humbly beg beg leave, to mention Mr General Fauvett, to your Majesty, as one very deserving of your Royal Favour
