I take the first opportunity of laying before your Majesty the Papers I have just rec<sup>d</sup> from et Belgioso, M. de Simolin is instructed to make a similar communication My only answer to et Belgioso was that the Les observations se presentent en faveur, I would not allow myself to make any upon a subject of such importance without having had your Majesty's Commands, that whatever opinion your Majesty might entertain of the Proposal you would always do Justice to the sentiments and Motives of the Mediators, it is really surprizing to me that a Minister of Prime Rank by sense and experience should entertain the least expectation of such articles being agreed to.
