agreed that it be submitted to His Majesty as the opinion of this Meeting that a Book announced by such a Letter as that of Lord George Gordon to D North should not be received by His Majesty.

agreed that it be also submitted to His Majesty that in case Lord George Gordon should come to the House tomorrow or any following

Say, the Lord in waiting should be directed to say to him as from himself that before the letter begins, that the the Lord in waiting cannot introduce any Person to present a Book to His Majesty without having previously received His Majesty's Permission

That in case this Permission should be applied for, the Lord in waiting should be commanded to say, That His Majesty having been made acquainted with Lord George Gordons Letter to Lord North announcing His Intention to deliver a Book thinks it highly improper to admit Lord George Gordon into His Presence to deliver any Book announced by such a Letter.
