

Ed. Amherst

Nov. 14 1781

4347

When Major Johnson had Charlemont Government, he resided on the Spot and the Income to him was always allowed to be 700 £ per Annum. on the decease of Major Johnson Major General Gistborne was appointed to the Government, and while he resided in England he received from the Government better than 600 £
a Year, as it was at that time understood.

15th Nov^r 1781.

Amherst.

Memorandum Regarding the Government of Charlemont.

From Lord Amherst

November 14 1781

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper]