

Mr. Gen. H. S. Comrey

440

Whitehall 3 June 1766
½ past nine

Sir

I herewith inclose a list of the Speakers on Two Questions moved this day in the House; the first for keeping the Parliament sitting to receive Accounts from America &c.
The other or rather Two moves on the subject of your Majesty's message.

on the first there was no Division. on the second which arose from an Objection started by Mr. Sycor; that the Promising your Majesty a Fortune for the Princess, was contrary to Parliam.<sup>ty</sup> Rule of Proceeding; without going into a Committee of supply. On this we Divided 118 to 35 on the last Question which was an Amendment proposed by C. Anvey to promise an Immediate Grant of the 440

Permission for their M. Highnesses. There was another Edition
The Numbers 109 to 31.

I am Sir with the most profound respect
Yours Majesty's most Dutiful & most Devoted Subject

I remain

J. S. Conway
