

H. H. to Lord North

Feb. 17 1782

4461

making a list of names
to be presented to the King
If Lord North has as yet taken no step towards acquainting the Bishop of Oxford that he is thought of for the Deanery of St. Pauls
I have reason to think it would be highly agreeable to the Lord Chancellor if that Preferment was conferred on his Brother the Bishop of Lincoln, indeed he expressed his wishes this day to me, but having previously spoken to Lord North concerning the Bishop of Oxford I could not give any positive answer till acquainted what steps had been taken, I am certain the Chancellor will constantly apply till this Brother is provided for.

Luce no 1000
Feb. 17. 1782.
on
43. p. 9. R. H.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines.]