

H. N. to Mr. North

Feb. 21 1782

Printed. Volume II 409

4463

Lord North, I am sorry to find so many persons could view the conduct of the King in so very prejudiced a light as to swell the Minority so much last night; I trust they cannot have lost the feelings of Englishmen so much as to support the Motion of Gen. Conway on Friday.

I understand poor Dr. Demainbray died at Richmond at two o'clock yesterday He held the Office of Surveyor of the East India Warehouse, this office was entirely answer my proposal for Mr. Barnard; I can assure you his Diligence and that he was very punctually attend the duty of his Employment, considering how very good humouredly I gave up pressing for him on Monday as Mr. Wyndham seemed to be a personal wish of Mr. North's I am certain He will on the present occasion easily forward my inclination.

Queens House

Feb. 21. 1782. ^{pm} 4h P. N. A. M.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.]

21 Feb 1789