Bushy House.
March 30: 1830.
Luteal night.

Dear Sir,

I am to acknowledge Yours of this morning and trust His Majesty was able to take the air today tho' after three o'clock this afternoon the Eastern wind made the weather very cold. I shall be in town from tomorrow evening considerably till Monday and hope you will be able to give me your usual accounts of the King's health. Dr. H. H. H. H. H. will see to you Sunday. In trust in God Sir,
- your on Thursday will be as he will please you and me. In the meantime adieu and ever believe me, Yours truly
J. J. J. J. J.
