Dear Sir;

Yours of 5 P. M. this day has just reached me and I feel I understand the purpose to which I shall have to be a person.
However unpleasant the days may be if the nights permit sleep I trust I may be more satisfied and therefore flatter myself of a more in--concerned affective for the thing and this you see the more so. I am glad His Majesty was able to do business with Genl. Thornton. I am easily convinced you must be a great comfort to the thing and therefore frequent by detained for a long time by the bed side. My visit last Friday can have a fortnight any comfort to His Majesty's recovery indeed, on that day found clear of the King was near to but I thought he had been ever since very difficulty of breathing and looking the colour of peweees ill as with the lips heavy as water.

-name than two months before. I shall be an-xious tomorrow to hear the report of Mr. Henry Halford and your opinion,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly

J. W. W. W.
