Dear Sir,

I feel myself
"Most Secret and Most Confidential" and lament from the bottom of my heart the detention of Mr.
Henry Hallford in the dear King's Quarters. My comfort to see he had Thomas's counsel fail ge.
-ring me gratification and I have you rejoice Mr Thajety has seen the Duke of Gloucester, who is really attached to the best of brothers and men.
I hope the King will not have seen the Duke of Lumberland or his son. I perceive Mr Thajety was not equal to converse with the Duke of Wellington.

Thanking you well for your medical labours and expressions and being the more highly convinced of your sincere attachment to the best of masters and Princes your letter does indeed give me the deepest concern. I cannot I dare not make a remark. I feel my trust in God and my confidence in the professional and disinterestedly affectionate attentions of those who are engaged in the suffering Brethren.

God bless him and ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours most truly

W. King
