

April 29th

Post
Private 45217
and Confidential.

Beulah House.
April 29. 1830.
5 P.M.

Dear Sir,
Your confidentially
"Post Private and Confidential" of this day has reached me and I thank you cannot send me more favorable account of your beloved Thing. It goes straight to the heart. As long as there is life there is hope and I have the excellence of your own
- dical knowledge and the affectionate regard you so justly entertain for the best of men and Providence. So your best. I put my trust in God and ever remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly
William L.

