

C. J. Fox

For H. M.'s reply see over

May 2 1782

4714

May 2 1782

The inclosed Papers were given to Mr. Fox by Mons<sup>r</sup> Simelin last night merely as notes of the conversation. Your Majesty knows too well the uncertainty & inconstancy of the Court of Peterburgh, or otherwise things seem to have taken the very turn there that could be wished & to be just apt for receiving the proper impression from the accounts which must have since received from the Hague & from hence.

St. James's <sup>m</sup>/<sub>20</sub> past 12.

2 May 1782.

C. J. F.
F. 07

My with certain

C. J. Fox

For H. M.'s reply see over

May 2 1782

4714 (2)

St. James's Place? 1782.
32. phone. P. M.

My opinion of the Paper Mr. Fox has sent to Me, entirely coincides with His, and the fluctuation of the Court of Russia alone prevents my feeling certain of the conduct of the Dutch meeting from thence with the reception it deserves.

Printed
by James W. Gray & Co. 21, R. N.
by James W. Gray & Co. 21, R. N.