

Memorandum— The Additional 1000 £ a Month to His Majesty's Privy Purse commenced for the Month of November 1777—

1770—	January—	His Majesty Paid Lord North for the Month of November & December 1777—	2000 ^u —
6 th	Febry—	Received for January & February—	2000 ^u —
26 th	June—	Received for 4 Months, March, April May & June—	4000 ^u —
1779.	17 th Sept.	Received for 12 Months from July 1778 to June 1779 inclusive—	12000 ^u —
1780—	21 st August	Received for 14 Months from July 1779 to August 1780 inclusive—	14000 ^u —
1781—	6 th March	Recd. for 6 Months from September 1780 to February 1781 inclusive	6000 ^u —
Total Received from His Majesty			40,000 ^u —
Received by Lord North otherwise as contributions towards the Expenses of the several Elections—			30,010 ^u 17 ^u —
Total received—			£ 70,010 17^u

Disbursed as by the General Account 103,765.15.2
Deduct Receipts on the other side 70,010.47

Ballance due to Lord North... £ 33,754.18

To which Expence Lord North on the 7th of Decr. 1780 borrowed of Mess^{rs}
Drummonds 30,000 £ and by His Majesty Orders gave to Mess^{rs} Drummonds a promissory Note
for that Sum

To make up which Sum there rests with His Majesty from the Month of March 1781. to the present Month of March inclusive the Sum of 13,000.00.0

and
There is yet to be paid by Lord Bute by Agreement towards the Expence of bringing his Son Col^l J^o Stuart into Parliamt the Sum of 1000
Bute

But besides the above disbursements actually paid
as stated above, there are claims made for Expences for the Sunny Election, beyond the Sum which has been already advanced, and for the Liverpoole, and the last Election and Petition for Colchester

North Private State Received from Ed. North written by the Secretary May 1752.