Sir

Before I receiv'd the Inclos'd from Lord Rockingham, I had enquir'd after the present Lord Talbot, as Your Majesty will see by Lady Talbot's message to Mrs. Ord, who has since seen Doct^r Talbot. His Intention was to have brought it as soon as the late Lord was buried, the which is to be to morrow, the present Lord being in the Country, but that he could not with any propriety attend your Majesty to day with it.

In the mean time The Staff is ready to be deliver'd to whomever your Majesty will direct.

I have lost no time in communicating
