After a great deal of dispute about Commissioners to be appointed either by your Majesty or by Parliament, The Point was given up, and the Minute agreed to, which Lord Shelburne has the honour to send your Majesty.

Lord Rockingham persists in regard to Lord Robert Spencer, but agrees not to press your Majesty upon it, till some proper communication can be had with the Duke of Marlborough and his Brothers.

Lord Shelburne requests your Majesty's commands, whether you would be pleas'd to be wanted on to morrow with the Swed's Address, ^[wanting] and whether it may be present'd to your Majesty at the Levee by the
