

Ld. Keppel
For H. M.'s reply see over

May 20 1782

4769

Lord Keppel has the Honour to transmit to your Majesty,
The dispatches received this Morning from Lord Howe, Off of the Texel, and also Rear Admiral Kempenfelt's letter by Express from Torbay, Lord Keppel joins in Opinion with Rear Admiral Kempenfelt that the three Ships he chased on the 10th Instant, was the Dutchway and two India Storeships under her Convoy

Admiralty Office. May 20th 1782

so M part three p. 10.

Ld. Keppel
For H. M.

47

The Stamps to expect Windsor
May 20th
m 50 pt.

Ld. Keppel

For H. M.'s reply see over

May 20 1782

4769 (2)

The letter Ld. Keppel has transmitted from Ld. Howe and R. adm.
Pamperel & others both are acting as from their reputations it is natural to expect.

Windsor

May 20th 1782

^m
50 pt. 8. P.H.

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

By request
Adm. Office May 20. 1792
By Andrew Mitchell Esq. 20. 1792