The House of Lords sat till half hour past eight hearing Council on Sir Thomas Pakenhild's first Bill, when the Chancellor mov'd it being committed for Tuesday -

Duke of Hamilton's claim was previously decided in his Favour - Lord Shelburne finding no other Minister attend it yesterday, did not think it proper for him,

The Duke of Richmond means, Lord Shelburne understands from him, to apply to your Majesty, first thro' Lord Rockingham and afterwards himself for a promise of Plymouth for Lord George Lennox, and that he shall not be remov'd from the command at Portsmouth after this campaign.
Lord Shelburne endeavours to dissuade

I am certain Ld. Shelburne cannot think me wrong in declaring both to the D. of Richmond and Ld. Buckingham to give any assurance in case Ld. Waldegrave should dye that Ld. Pembroke shall obtain the Government of Plymouth that Ld. Geo. Lennox may obtain Portsmouth; no time but so extraordinary an event as the total rout of Ministry in March, could have made me promise that Government to Ld. Pembroke; therefore it must not be drawn into precedent for future vacancies.
