

E. of Shelburne
Berkeley Square July 11. 1782. ^m 10 p. M.

4850

x

Sir

I have the honour to send Your Majesty the Speech.

I have a Letter from Mr. Fox acquainting me that Lord Derby is to call upon me this day for an exploration of what I said yesterday relative to his Resignation, but it cannot admit of a long discussion

I have the Honour to be with the highest Respect

Your Majesty's

most Duty full

Subject and

Faithfull Servant

Robert Walpole

Berkley Square

11th July 1702

10th post 12.

P. 1.

There has been no alteration in the Speech, except a small transposition of Words, in the paragraph about America, and the Insertion of the word colonies. The Fair copy will be ready for Your Majesty at the Queen's House.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on lined paper]