

H. M. to Ld. Shelburne

July 16 1782

The dispatches by Potter certainly are very unpleasant and shew very clearly that Mr. Fox does not deserve to be better thought of than I have uniformly done.
I flattered myself by the answer I received to the letter I wrote to Mr. Scobinson that Ld. Shelburne would have every reason to be satisfied with any conversation he might have with him.
