Sir

Be assured of strict Secrecy, as well as my wonted Obedience to Your Royal Highness's Commands, which I declare I never was desir'd to deviate from, in any instance. I regret much my great Timidity in in being so uneasy at the Change of invitation, & apprehending the appearance of over eagerness & intruding on a Family Party — On which account I wrote the Note I did, to prove I obey'd Orders — I sincerely hope Your Royal Highness is better to day — I am with great respect

Sir

Your Royal Highness much obliged —
