M<sup>r</sup>. Addington has the Honor of returning to your Majesty the very interesting, and important Papers, with which your Majesty was pleas'd to entrust Him this Morning, and entreats your Majesty to be assur'd that He is truly grateful for this Proof of Confidence, which your Majesty has condescended to afford Him.

M<sup>r</sup>. Addington trusts that He has acted properly in not making an additional Copy of your Majesty's Note to the Lord Chancellor of the 31st of December, and of the Draft, submitted to your Majesty on the preceding Day, as upon Examination He found two Copies of those Documents amongst your Majesty's Papers.
