Sir Lord Chancellor, with the most humble Duty, inclosed to your Majesty a Paper which, with very slight Alterations indeed, is a Copy of that, which he had the Honour to receive from your Majesty. If your Majesty shall graciously approve it, I shall be pleased to signify that Approbation to the said Chancellor to morrow at St James, he will forthwith send a Copy to the Prince, & had before, mentioning to the latter in the Course of his day, that he may probably be authorised so to do.
