

[Enclosure]

AA

His Majesty has next to doing His Duty nothing more at Heart, than that the Arrangement for due Care of the Person and Education of His Dear Grand Daughter The Princess Charlotte should be arranged to the full Satisfaction of all Parties; of which He will give fullest Proof, as He finds The Prince of Wales has some unfortunate Prejudice against the Idea of the Fitness of Baroness Howe, whom The King would most undoubtedly have named as Governess, if it had been for One of His own Daughters; but waves

waves the Idea on the present Occasion, from an additional Reason, the Doubt of her accepting the Situation if it had met with the approbation of all Parties, after the severe Loss she has sustained within these few Days.

The King having Reason to believe the Dowager Baroness of De Clifford would be acceptable to The Prince of Wales, and being convinced of her excellent Sense, and correct Conduct, is willing to cast His Eyes on Her for the important Situation of Governess to The Princess Charlotte, trusting,

the present
 additiubt of uation
 the
 rties, she has hese

ing
 Dowager
 rd
 to The d being ellent
 onduct, is Eyes
 rtant
 ls to ttle,
 trusting,

trusting that, this being agreed to, no farther Dif-ficulties will be made to the Paper He has trans-mitted through the Channel of the Lord Chancellor.

[Faint, illegible handwriting in the top left quadrant]

[Faint, illegible handwriting in the middle left quadrant]

[Faint, illegible handwriting in the middle right quadrant]

*Copy Deposited the papers to the Office to be communicated by
The Lord Chamberlain
Jan 23rd 1705*