

AAA
Lord Chancellor to H.M.

49505

July 19. 1805.
9 P.M.

I send in answer, after expressing his most humble Duty to your Majesty, transmits a Copy of a Note, which he has this Evening received from His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. He communicated your Majesty's Commands to Lord St Helens, and supplics that he shall be honoured by an Answer from his Lordship.

The Lord Chancellor, by your Majesty's Permission, would beg leave to present Sir Beaumont Astle on Thursday to his Hands for his Pension upon his retiring, & Mr Schyff, whom your Majesty was pleased to agree should be one of your Majesty's Counsel, as your Majesty's Son, the Prince, had made him his Solicitor General.
