Sir

I am perfectly unable to express the grateful feelings with which I received your Majesty's letter this morning.

The indulgence so graciously allowed to my Friend, seems already to have done her the most essential good, & I have little doubt, but that in a short time, she will be perfectly equal, to enter upon the interesting, & serious, charge with which, she has been so graciously entrusted.

I remain with gratitude & respect
Your Majesty's Dutiful Subject and Servant
Maria Schester
