My dearest Papa,

I can hardly express how very happy and delighted you made me by your kind letter, which I shall always value, as a most grateful proof of the love & affection you have for me - & still more as I hope it will be followed by many more, such - The letter I wrote to you, was what I could not help feeling, & if I had had the happiness of seeing you

I should have expressed the same, if you find to any alteration in my conduct, I owe it to dear Lady de Clifford, M^{rs} Udny, & M^{rs} Nott, who have all labour'd to bring me to a sense of my duty; which I hope I shall feel more & more as I grow up:— I can but repeat the same to you again, that I ever shall feel the sincerest love, regard, respect, & attachment to you, my dearest Papa; & that I shall endeavour all in my power

you find to deserve your affection & approbation we it more & more.

I hope you will have much pleasure in your delightful Tour; I wish I was with you, but as that cannot be, I can only long to have the happiness of seeing you return in perfect health. - Farewell my dearest Papa; -

Believe me to be

Your ever truly Aff^{te} & Dutiful Child
Charlotte
