Bognor. August <sup>Th</sup> 12. 1800.

This letter will reach you my dearest Papa, when you are receiving from many, congratulations, & sincere wishes for your health & happiness, but I may say none as sincere as mine.

May you, My Dearest Papa, live to see & enjoy many many happy returns of this day; and, may I always study, to promote (to the Best of my power) the happiness of so good, & kind, a father.

& if, by so doing, I continue to enjoy your affection, and approbation, it will make me the happiest of the happy With these sentiments,

I remain,

My Dearest Papa

Your ever affectionate,

& Dutiful Daughter,

Charlotte
