Sir

it was quite impossible for me to say more than a few words to Your Royal Highness Yesterday. which I hope will plead my excuse for troubling you to day. but the truth is, that as we do not go to Kensington to day. I have a dread of the Princess coming to Windsor to morrow, tho I think she would hardly come to the lower Lodge, with Your Royal Highness, have the goodness to tell me, what I am to do, in case she should come to Ragosta Lodge, or the Inn & send for Princess Charlotte, your Royal Highness's Command shall be obeyed. but indeed Sir you must feel my situation on these occasions are rather difficult - I send this by a Servant & entreat Your Royal Highness will have the goodness to let me have an answer by him, with the greatest respect Sir

I am ever Your Royal Highness's
 most devoted
