Sir

Immediately on receiving Your Majesty's commands I have sent for Mr. Gilbert, and as soon as I can see him, I will have the honour to return to Your Majesty the Report and Schedules as directed together with the explanations Your Majesty desires, more distinctly than I can attempt to give them without his Assistance.

E. of Shelburne.
Berkeley Square Oct 7. 1782. 50th 1/2.

I have not been able to find any port on the map spell Brythe, and am not sufficiently acquainted with the French Ports to pretend to guess, whether it may be S.<sup>r</sup> Brienz which is meant, and lies on the Chan-nell side of Brest.

I have the Honour to be with the highest Respect

Your Majesty's
Berkeley Square most Obedy, full

Sir

I have the honour to enclose to Your Majesty the Report and Schedules, and to acquaint Your Majesty, that the reason Mr Gilbert did not include in his second Column the Officers, which he proposes should be abolished under the Lord Chamberlain, is that they are not directed by the Act, whereas

The packet sent by Ed. Shelburne is safely arrived; He may direct Mr. Boden to be presented tomorrow at St. James as Solicitor General
