Sir

I have the honour to send your Majesty the Letters which I have received from Jarvis this morning, together with the copy of the short Notes, to which Mr. Oswald's is an answer.

The Schedule N^o 4 belongs to those returned to your Majesty, It was left by mistake at the Treasury last night, where I had sent them to be copied.

I have likewise the honour to return your Majesty's Box.

I have the honour to be

P.S.

I have had the Duke of Manchester and Lord Corhile with came to Town yesterday for a few days, and communicated with both upon what regarded their Departments.

The letters Ld. Shelburne has received this day from Paris certainly bear much stronger marks of Peace being wished there, than had as yet appeared
