

Lord Grantham
Oct. 13th 1782.

5000

Lord Grantham entreats your Majesty's Pardon, for having kept the French & Spanish
Papers so long.

He proposes, according to your Majesty's orders, laying them before your confidential servants, as soon as they are all in Town.

In the mean while, he has dispatched a Messenger to Paris, with the Letter of which your Majesty reviews the Draft herewith.

13th October 1782.

