Dear Mr. Anson

The enclosed is the account given to us of half past twelve - We have kept the Message to the Lord Mendenhall in the hopes of being able to ~~send~~ communicate the Prince's safe delivery, but as that is still defid, We hope the Message who will carry this, will arrive as soon as the Post letters arrive & bring later intelligence therefore, than what the Mail would have conveyed - You may be assured that a Message shall be dispatched, as soon as the Event takes place.

I am your obedient Attendant
