We are very much in want of Instructions here My dear Friend how we are to act with regard to the Royal Coops. - Wanting in the Upholders of this House, & in course he is an Undertaker also - a Shell, or some sort of receiver for the Body I presume to think should forthwith be ordered - on such subjects we dare not speak to the broken hearted Prince, even the Baron cannot interrupt his sad Melancholy, thus being all ignorant / as probably the Prince himself would be if he could be spoken to / we crave instructions from some one how to act in the name of The Baron, Sir Robert Gardiner and Your truly faithful servants
