Sir

I have the honour to inclose to your Majesty a Letter receiv'd this morning, which I sent immediately to Sir George Young, presuming that your Majesty would have no time lost in attention to the application for Troops. I have some time first been apprehensive of the consequences of the badness of the season in all the articles of necessity, and have been very sorry to find that Parliament have not given proper discretionary powers to the Council. I have the honour to inclose to your Majesty the result of some enquiries made by Mr. Baring. I am assur'd by others that the present price of wheat is principally owing to the lateness of the season, and that as soon as the new crop begins to be thresh'd out, it will be lower'd.

I have the satisfaction to acquaint Your Majesty, that what Your Majesty said to General Lowrey, together with the Letters received last night from New York, ~~that~~ ~~and~~ ~~some~~ ~~little~~ ~~dis~~ ~~con~~ ~~fron~~ of the subject last night at Lord the People's has deferr'd the Measures propos'd regarding New York, till they can have due consideration, and I propose to morrow or monday having a particular conversation with General Conway on the subject of Sir Guy Carleton.

I have the honour to be with the highest Respect

Devoted Subject and Faithfull
Servant
