Dropmore Nov. 12. 1814

Lady Grenville has the honour to acknowledge Sir Benjamin Bloomfield's letter, and to request that he will lay before His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the dutiful assurance of her readi-ness to obey the commands with which His Royal Highness has been pleased to honour her on this mournful occasion. Deeply as she is affected with the sense of this great and general calamity, it will yet afford her a melancholy satisfaction

to be allowed this last occasion of paying to the memory of a Person so deeply and justly lamented a tribute, however inconsiderable of Duty, Respect, and regret.
