

Draft to Lt. Grantham
Windsor Oct 21. 1742. ^{on p. 7. A. M.}

5010

It is certainly very painful to Me who had the honours to ratify the Peace of Paris in 1763 to be obliged to consent to such terms as the factions ^{within my Kingdoms} not the weight of my Enemies ~~should ever have made me~~ Lt. Grantham has drawn up the Instructions to Mr. Fitchett very clearly and cannot too soon dispatch the Messengers
to Paris

Windsor
Oct 21. 1742.
^{on p. 7. A. M.}

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Small handwritten mark or signature.]