M^{rs} C. Jones having made an application to Prince Leopold Sep^r 5th 1823 enclosing at the same time two letters from the late Prince^s written previously to her marriage (which substantiated in some degree a claim upon his generosity) but no cognizance being taken of the circumstance, or the letters of the Prince^s returned to her, she takes the liberty to enclose copies of them, that Sir W^m Knighton may know the nature of her claim on the late Prince^s - leaving it to his discretionary power for the use of them —
