

A. R. to Ld. North

5045

Windsor Nov. 4. 1752.

I have just received Lord North's letter acquainting me that those gentlemen in general ~~who~~ supported the late administration seem ~~well~~ inclined to join in ^{prosecuting} such measures as may be necessary for the support of Government; the times certainly require the concurrence of all who wish to ^{prevent} ~~prevent~~ ^{anarchy} ~~anarchy~~; I have nothing personally to ^{no} wish for but the Prosperity of my Dominions therefore ~~and~~ ^{and} certainly must look on ~~those~~ who will not heartily assist me as bad men as well ungrateful Subjects.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]