The Prince Regent saw Lord Berkeley on the last Day that he was in London & told his Royal Highness that he should never see him again recommended his Family from what the Prince knew of their circumstances and then he said that I hope I may never see Salvation if every word that I have now told your Royal Highness respecting my first Marriage is not true he had frequently told his Royal Highness before every circumstance respecting his Marriage his Royal Highness thought Lord Berkeley then look'd ill but did not apprehend him to be in immediate Danger

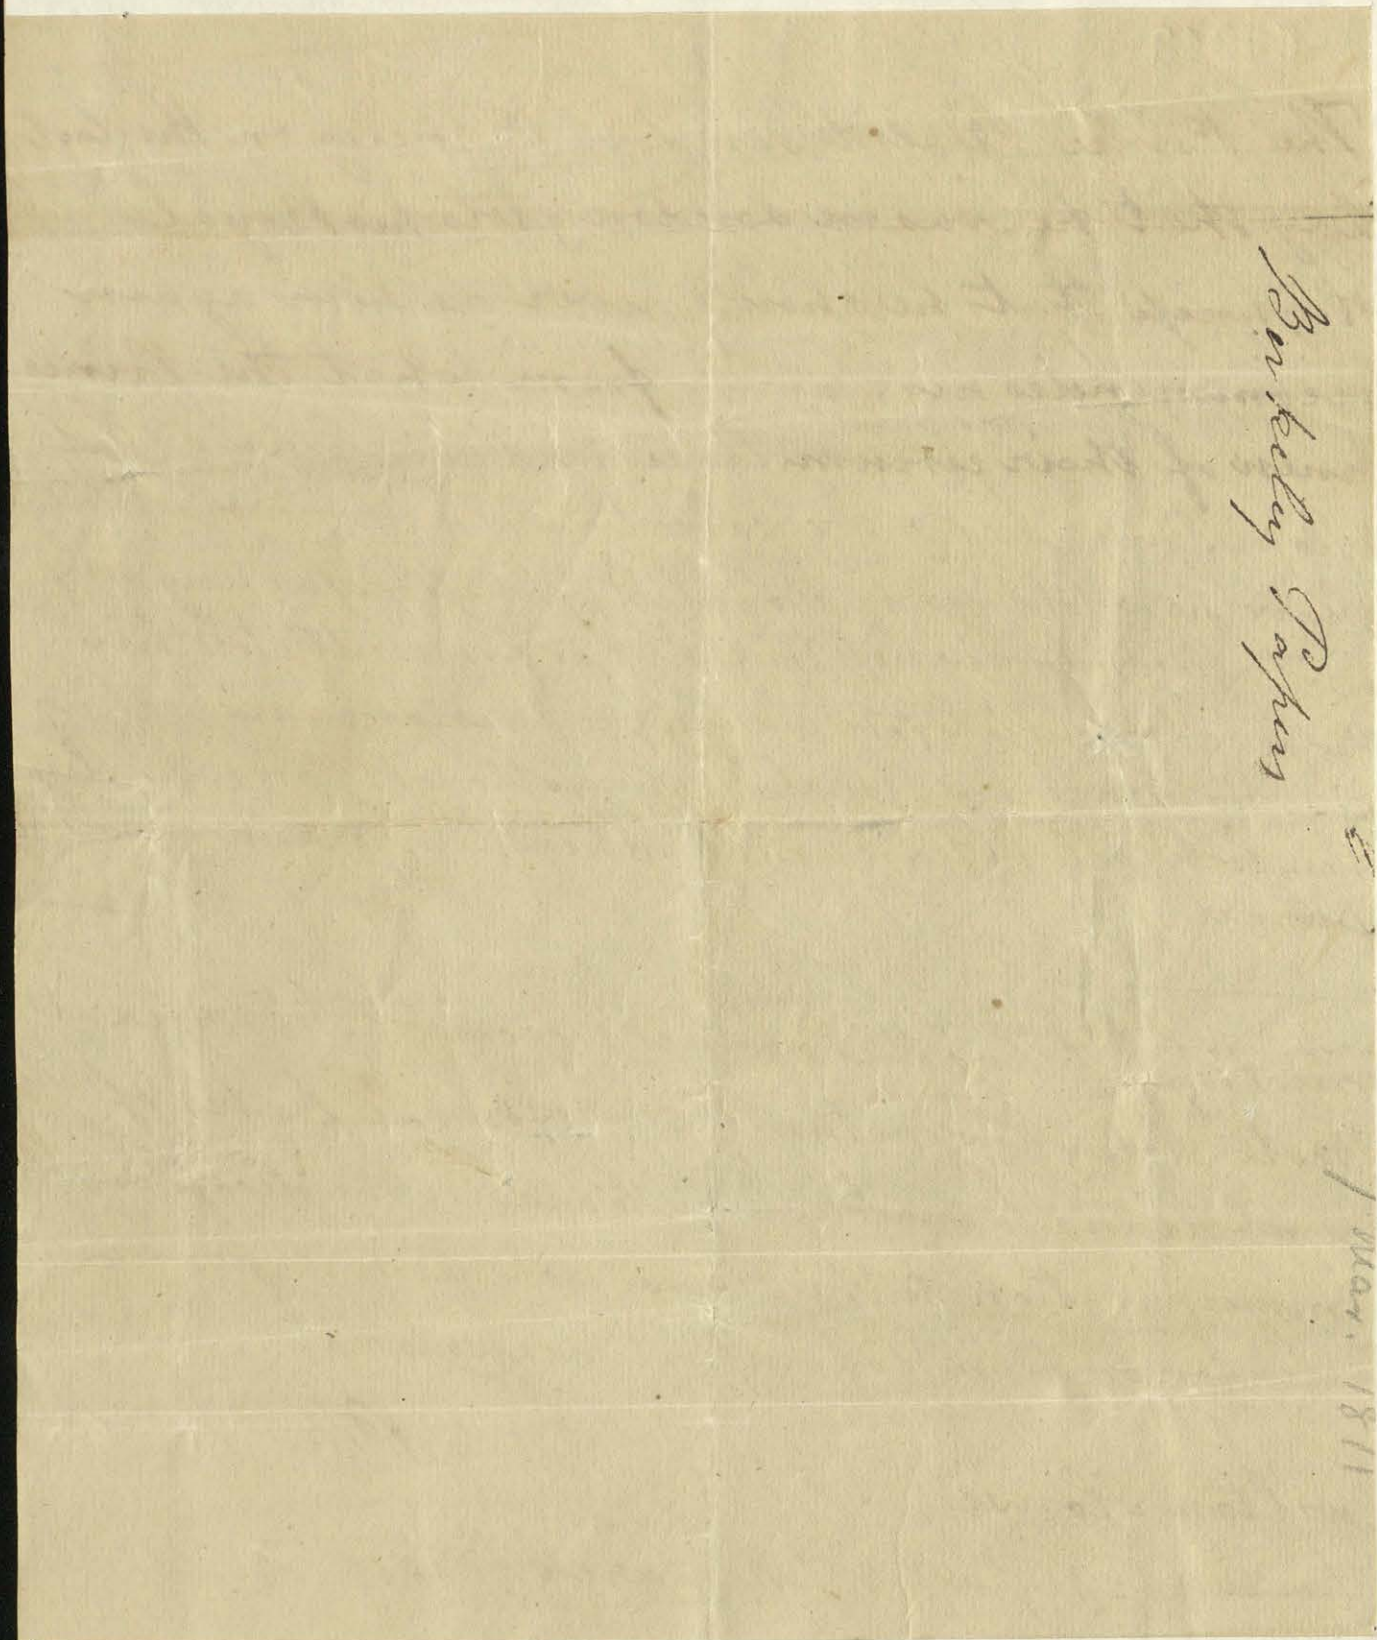

The Regent has this moment received Mr Seryeant Best's Note & has instantly sent for the Duke of Cumberland to enable him to make the necessary communication to the House whenever it may be called for or deem'd of importance so to do
