Mr Oswald is returned from Paris, and has brought Mr Fitzherbert's Dispatches of the 15th Instant, which confirm in every particular the Advice received yesterday by M. de Rayneval.

They shall be immediately laid before your Majesty.

M. de Rayneval however has just received a private but certainly authentic Notice that the Preliminaries were signed on Saturday the 18th.

This Information is surely not sufficient to justify any Notification of it at all, but authorizes me humbly tho' cordially to congratulate your Majesty on this important Event
