

H. H. to Mr. Crautman

Jan. 24 1783

I am infinitely happy at the Receipt of Mr. Crautman's note with the wished for Ratification of the Signature of the Archimedes, with France and Spain, with the other concurrent circumstances, which Mr. Crautman ought without loss of time to communicate to the Lt. Major, the East India and South Sea Companies and the Bank, a Libent should be held that the Ratifications may be made out without delay, from the S. of Richmond's Ratification yesterday, I should imagine he will not attend
