

Hered. Princess of Brunswick

51984-5

Sir

The Duke & Dutchepe were in the room when I was deliver'd, they both have always shown the greatest affection, the Prince has never been so well with his father as this winter he consults him a bout his troops & has follow'd his advice in reducing them. The Princes health has been very much effected by the journeys that he has been this last summer he can not bare fatigue since the wound which always gives him some pain on the change of wheather. he is quite fond of augusta & I am sure will make a tender father. I believe that in one of my letters I mention'd his designe of going to Italy & to France next autumn; it will be very dull for me to stay at Bronsvic, & I wish you would allow me to make you a visit, he could bring me their & then go to France, for god sake dont let P. Charles know that I have any way to write but by the post, for he tell my husband every thing & he might think that I say more then he would chouse of his family. P. Henry was with us when I was deliver'd he is very proud & very ambitious, but cleaver, heating the King for no reason but that he is the eldest brother the P of Prussia has assisted at all the councils this winter & is better with the King. we are to go to Berlin in July but if I have any thing better to do I shall with great pleasure make my excuse & so would the Prince. I have made my bargain that if I am with child. I dont ~~shear~~.

Major Camper as deliver'd the wish'd for letter, for which I again & again thank you, the interest you take in all that concerns me, is one of the Greatest comforts of my life, & I can with great truth assure that there is both confidence & amitie between the P. & me, & tho' I dont doubt but to standers by we are a riddle, so to people live better to gather then we do, & I would go through fire & water for him. I admire your generous behavior to the Devonshire family, & what pleases me is that no body will think it your Kingship, I am with all respect your Majesty's most dutiful subject & sister
