

Herod Princess of Brunswick [1766]

51990-1

Sir

Monsieur Friderich came yesterday but we spent the day at Salzdahl he was of the party, which hinder'd me from writing the Dutcheis in a bad way she still can not go out of her room I fear she wont hold it long tho' there is no danger for the present. I have beg'd of the Prince that if an accident should happen we should not be more with the Duke for I shall be a little rebellious if that is, we shall ^{be} very well lodg'd at the court much better then we now are the Queen of Denmark has wrote word that the P. Royal & my dear son are to be married, I hope she will be happy then the poor queen is they live ala Prussia she is a little in fault for she could not make her self to his ways & that has quite disgusted him, so that they never meet but in publick, you'll have heard that the Prince of Orange is to be married either to the youngest P. of Denmark or to the P. W. the K. of Prussia niece.

She is vastly comended, & her figure is extremely well, what makes me partial to her is that her governess is like Horbom I am quite sorry that one of my sisters go to Holland for I like that young P.

I wish the Cole family ^{would} made as great a fun with the P. as they do with me, for he is the best amongst them, his heart is good & he could not vex any body, I never have seen him out of humour, & even when he is grave. it never with me indeed. I am vastly satisfied with him & I wish all my sisters may be as happy as I am. but they must to like me or it will not do. Bescworth has been here on his way to Potsdam, he is one of Ferdinand's admirers. I cannot enough say how good he is to me for when I was ill on the road. he took all the care of me as if I had been his daughter. I am Sir your most dutiful subject & sister Augusta

I do long to see you for god sake come to Hanover next summer.
